

East End

1. Absolute Vintage Find old Barbour jackets and amazing bags at this vintage spot. 15 Hanbury St., 44-20-7247-3883

2. All Saints A citified, edgy label with pieces that risk takers will love. 114 Commercial St., 44-20-7392-8098

3. Beyond Retro London's biggest (and arguably best) vintage emporium, located in an old warehouse. 110-112 Cheshire St., 44-20-7613-3636

4. Blondie Glam yet affordable shop that specializes in shoes and bags from the '60s through the '80s. 114-118 Commercial St., 44-20-7247-0050

5. Hoxton Boutique Hip, gallerylike, small-label store that pioneered the East End retail scene. 2 Hoxton St., 44-20-7684-2083

6. Labour and Wait General-store purveyor of retro-influenced home goods. 18 Cheshire St., 44-20-7729-6253

7. Mar Mar Co. Esoteric, smartly designed gifts from Scandinavia abound. 16 Cheshire St., 44-20-7729-1494

8. Precious Tons of small lines in a corner space located on the grounds of a former artillery range. 16 Artillery Passage, 44-20-7377-6668

9. Shelf Lo-fi shop with cute hand-screened cards, clever toys, and one-of-a-kind journals. 40 Cheshire St., 44-20-7739-9444

10. Start Newly expanded, truly cool indie-clothing destination. 42-44 Rivington St., 44-20-7729-3334

11. Story Look for ethereal dresses, skirts, and tops—along with decor items—with an earth-friendly point of view. 4 Wilkes St., 44-20-7377-0313

12. Sunday (Up)Market Recently opened weekly market noteworthy for its adventurous mix of 140 vendors selling items new and old. At the corner of Hanbury Street and Brick Lane in the Old Truman Brewery, no phone