

Hinsdale

1. Embrace Part restaurant, part upscale gift boutique, this unusual hybrid is well worth seeking out. The retail half focuses on luxury impulse buys: D.L. & Co. scented candles, Bond No. 9 fragrances, Santa Maria Novella soaps, and Jeanine Payer engraved message bracelets, plus weekend-ready clothing like J Brand jeans and T Luxury extra-soft tees. Just beyond the sales floor is the bistro, offering inventive takes on traditional American dishes. 29 E. First St., 630-325-1996

2. Kate and Company Much of the stock at this laid-back accessories store consists of reworked vintage gems like delicate medallions and elegant locket. Also available: handpicked pieces from Thea Grant, Lulu Frost, Padre Vavre, and Paige Sargisson. 19 W. First St., 630-321-1388

3. Shop 10 Simply put, this welcoming spot is the go-to in Hinsdale for everyday-wearable items like Tibi dresses, Marc by Marc Jacobs jackets, and Nanette Lepore tops. 10 E. First St., 630-887-7467

4. Stockholm Objects Proprietors Åsa Anden (a former dentist) and Jessica Lederhausen (a onetime pro golfer)—both natives of Sweden—opened this airy store to import highly functional, ingenious Scandinavian designs. The stock includes clever housewares, bright clothing, and decorative accessories. 26 W. Chicago Ave., 630-655-0966

5. Studio 910 This two-year-old offshoot of the Chicago shop mixes stylish work essentials like Mackage's textured wool trenches and Qi Cashmere's Empire-waist sweater dresses with more dressed-down basics: Generra tunics, Ella Moss tanks, and Three Dots tees. 35 S. Washington St., Second Fl., 630-986-0900

6. Urban Sole Though only two years old, this footwear purveyor has fast become a local favorite. Bestsellers this season include Corso Como low-heeled Mary Janes, Cordani riding boots, and chic, ultra-comfortable flats by Gentle Souls. Urban Sole has also been adding clothing: appliquéd tees by Amy Tangerine, jackets by One Girl Who, plus bags from Hobo and Tano. 49 S. Washington St., 630-323-5023
